

Name: _____

Group: _____

5th Grade DRAMA class

An interview with a family member about their childhood.

(Video transcript with gaps)

Benjamin: Hi fifth grade Drama students! How are you? Look, here I have my _____ Joshua and he's going to ask the interview _____. I really hope you enjoy what we have done. _____ as many times as necessary, ok?

Son: So, Dad. When and where were you born?

Dad: I was born in Edinburgh, the _____ of Scotland, in 19_____.

Son: What is your favourite memory from being young?

Dad: Well, I remember being with my wonderful _____, my _____ friend, Nigel.

Son: Did you enjoy school? Why or why not?

Dad: Well, I enjoyed school because it was a _____ school in my _____ and we did lots of great _____.

Son: That's cool. What music did you listen to?

Dad: I listened to my _____ Andy's music, he listened to Pink Floyd and David Bowie.

Son: What did you like doing in your free time?

Dad: In my free time I enjoyed riding my bike in the _____ and playing Scalextric in my _____.

Son: Tell me about your summer holidays.

Dad: Well I didn't go to the _____ but I spent my summer holidays in the
_____.

Son: What was in fashion?

Dad: I don't know, I _____ think _____ fashion when I was ten years old.

Son: But who was your idol?

Dad: My idol at that _____ in time was my primary _____, she was a wonderful teacher and I _____ her!

Son: Great! How has your village changed?

Dad: Well, all my family, as you know, all _____ family still live in the village but now there are more _____ and a lot of people we don't _____.

Son: Lots of new people that is _____. Can you tell me a funny or interesting story?

Dad: Well. Yes, I can! And _____ laugh!

Son: I'll try!

Dad: I remember when I was about _____ or _____ years old my father came home _____ glasses and I started _____!

Son: (laughing) All right! That's... that's... Why?

Dad: I was _____, I was _____. I think my Dad was old. I don't know.

Son: That would be the _____ of the interview.

Dad: That's the _____ of the interview...

(Benjamin and Joshua have a conversation while they are serving the tea)