

1. Complete the definitions with the words in the box.

Omnivores Herbivores Oviparous Reptiles
Viviparous Domestic animals Wild animals Gills

Herbivores: animals that eat plants.

Omnivores: animals that eat plants and other animals.

Domestic animals: animals that live with people.

Gills: what young amphibians use to breathe.

Viviparous: animals that feed on milk when they are babies.

Oviparous: animals born from an egg.

Wild animals: animals that live in nature.

Reptiles: animals that are covered in dry scales.

2. Write true (T) or false (F) and correct the false sentences:

Amphibians have dry skin.

F

Amphibians have wet skin.

Birds are oviparous.

T

All mammals live on land.

F

Some mammals live on land

Reptiles and birds breathe with gills.

F

Reptiles and birds breathe with lungs.

3. Match the pictures with the correct ecosystem.

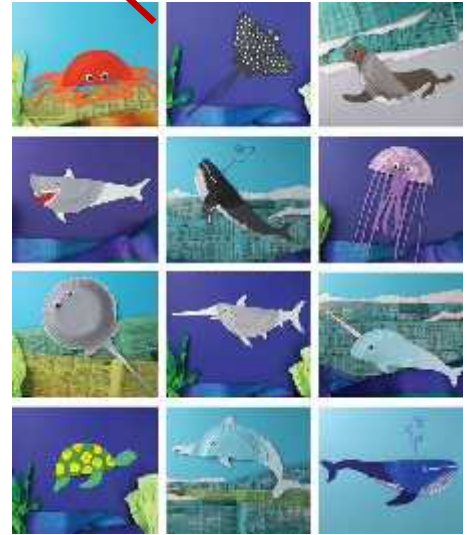

Mountain

Ocean

Rainforest

Desert

Complete the sentences:

A desert is a dry place. There isn't a lot of vegetation.

A mountain is a high region. There aren't a lot of trees but there are plants and animals.

An ocean can be warm or cold. There are aquatic animals.

A rainforest is a wet place. There are lots of plants, trees and animals.