

Grammar

When I was one, I could walk, but I couldn't talk.

Could you talk when you were two?

Yes, I could. / No, I couldn't.

1 Write about these children. What could they do when they were young?

- 1 What could Alex do when he was three years old?

When Alex was three, he could read.

- 2 What could May do when she was five years old?
-
-

- 3 What could Bill and Tom do when they were six years old?
-
-

- 4 What could you do when you were six years old?
-
-

Resource 11 B

- 1 1 When Alex was three, he could read. 2 When May was five, she could write.
- 3 When Bill and Tom were six, they could play chess.
- 4 When I was six, I could tie a shoelace.