A Day I Remember

Hello! I will talk about a day. It was nice. I was at home and something happened but I don't remember very well. I was doing things and then I hear a noise. I go outside and there was a dog or maybe a cat, I'm not sure. It was running or maybe walking. I did something and then I helped or maybe didn't help. My family was there but they didn't do much. Later we went somewhere and then we come back home. It was ok. The end.
