

SCIENCE REVIEW

(SPAIN AND THE EUROPEAN UNION)

Read the information written in your notebook. Have a look at your book too!

1st Answer these questions using long sentences.

Part 1: Spain's Regional Organisation.

1. Where is Spain located and which territories does it occupy?

2. How many autonomous communities and autonomous cities is Spain politically divided into?

3. According to the notes, what is the difference between an autonomous community and a province?

4. How many provinces are there in total in Spain?

5. Who is responsible for ruling a municipality?

6. Name three public services that citizens receive from their local government.

7. Write the provinces these autonomous communities have:

• Andalucía: _____

• Galicia: _____

• Aragón: _____

• Castilla y León: _____

Part 2: The Spanish Government

8. Spain is described as a "constitutional monarchy". Why?

9. What is the "Supreme Law" of Spain? What does it define?

10. When was the Spanish Constitution voted for?

11. Who is the current King of Spain and what are two of his main functions?

12. Which branch of power is responsible for writing and passing new laws? Which institution holds this power?

13. What are the main responsibilities of the Executive Power, and who makes up this branch?

14. How does the Judicial Power protect the law, and which institutions hold this power?

Part 3: The European Union (EU)

15. What is the European Union and how many countries are currently members?

16. What are the three main aims of the European Union?

17. Explain the "Freedom of Movement" advantage for EU citizens.

18. What is the "Common Market" and how does it affect the transport of goods?

19. What document can an EU citizen use to receive medical attention in another EU country?

20. List two responsibilities (obligations) that every EU citizen must follow.

