

Comparatives – House Examples

1. House number two is bigger than house number one.
2. House number four is smaller than house number three.
3. House number two is higher than house number five.
4. House number six is uglier than house number one.
5. House number one is more beautiful than house number six.
6. House number two is more interesting than house number three.
7. House number five is nicer than house number four.
8. House number six is cheaper than house number two.