

English Unit 3 review

1. Write the following numbers:

a. 96,393

b. 5,828,347

c. 1,400,008

d. 2,745

2. What are these numbers?

- a) Twenty-four thousand, three hundred and nineteen _____
- b) One hundred thousand _____
- c) One hundred and twenty-five thousand, six hundred and seven _____
- d) Three hundred and eighty thousand, nine hundred and forty-two _____
- e) Five hundred thousand _____
- f) Seven hundred and fifty-six thousand, two hundred and eleven _____

3. Transform these sentences:

a. Are you going to visit your grandparents on Saturday?

- _____

+ _____

b. My mum will buy me a bike for my birthday.

- _____

? _____

c. I won't be here next year.

+ _____

? _____

4. Put the words in the correct order to make sentences using be going to.

1. going / I / study / to / tonight / am

2. is / going / she / buy / to / a / new / phone

3. are / we / going / have / to / lunch / together

4. play / going / they / to / football / tomorrow / are

5. rain / is / going / it / to

6. watch / going / you / to / a / movie / are / tonight

7. travel / going / my / parents / to / are / next / week

8. help / going / he / to / me / is / with / homework / my

English Unit 3 – Answers

1. Write the following numbers

a. 96,393

→ Ninety-six thousand, three hundred and ninety-three

b. 5,828,347

→ Five million, eight hundred and twenty-eight thousand, three hundred and forty-seven

c. 1,400,008

→ One million, four hundred thousand and eight

d. 2,745

→ Two thousand, seven hundred and forty-five

2. What are these numbers?

a) Twenty-four thousand, three hundred and nineteen

→ 24,319

b) One hundred thousand

→ 100,000

c) One hundred and twenty-five thousand, six hundred and seven

→ 125,607

d) Three hundred and eighty thousand, nine hundred and forty-two

→ 380,942

e) Five hundred thousand

→ 500,000

f) Seven hundred and fifty-six thousand, two hundred and eleven

→ 756,211

3. Transform these sentences

a) Are you going to visit your grandparents on Saturday?

- You aren't going to visit your grandparents on Saturday.

+ You are going to visit your grandparents on Saturday.

b) My mum will get me a bike for my birthday.

- My mum won't get me a bike for my birthday

? Will my mum get me a bike for my birthday?

c) I won't be here next year.

- I will be here next year.

? Will you be here next year?

4. Put the words in the correct order (be going to)

1. I am going to study tonight.
2. She is going to buy a new phone.
3. We are going to have lunch together.
4. They are going to play football tomorrow.
5. It is going to rain.
6. You are going to watch a movie tonight.
7. My parents are going to travel next week.
8. He is going to help me with my homework.