

UNIT 1
READING

HUMANITAS
BILINGUAL SCHOOL TORREJÓN

READING COMPREHENSION

Sarah gets up at seven o'clock every morning when she has to go to school. She takes a bath at half past seven, then eats her breakfast. After finishing her breakfast, she brushes her teeth and gets ready for school. By half past eight, Sarah is ready. She says goodbye and leaves the house.

Sarah walks with her sister Clara to the end of the footpath that leads to their house. There, they wait for Mr. Ben, the school bus driver who lives next door. He takes the children to school in his bus. Sometimes, the traffic is heavy, and Mr. Ben has to drive slowly, but Sarah is still early for school. When the bell rings at half past nine, Sarah quickly joins the line.
